The Red, White and Blue

Oh, Columbia, the gem of the ocean,
The home of the brave and the free,
The shrine of each patriot's devotion,
A world offers homage to thee;
Thy mandates make heroes assemble,
When Liberty's form stands in view;
Thy banners make tyranny tremble,
When borne by the red, white and blue;

CHORUS—When borne by the red, white and blue,
When borne by the red, white and blue,
Thy banners make tyranny tremble,
When borne by the red, white and blue.

When war wing'd its wide desolation,
And threatened the land to deform,
The ark then of freedom's foundation
Columbia, rode safe thro' the storm;
With the garlands of vict'ry around her,
When so proudly she bore her brave crew,
With her flag proudly floating before her,
The boast of the red, white and blue;

CHORUS—The boast of the red, white and blue,
The boast of the red, white and blue,
With her flag proudly floating before her
The boast of the red, white and blue.

The star-spangled banner bring hither,
O'er Columbia's true sons let it wave;
May the wreaths they have worn never wither,
Nor its stars cease to shine on the brave;
May the service united ne'er sever,
But hold to their colors so true;
The Army and Navy forever,
Three cheers for the red, white and blue:

CHORUS—Three cheers for the red, white and blue
Three cheers for the red, white and blue,
The Army and Navy forever,
Three cheers for the red, white and blue.

The Star Spangled Banner

Oh, say, can you see, by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watche'd, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs busting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.

CHORUS—Oh, say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free
And the home of the brave?

On the shore, dimly seen thro' the mists of the deep
Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes,
What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses?
Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
In full glory reflected now shines on the stream.

CHORUS—'Tis the star-spangled banner; oh, long may it wave
O'er the land of the free
And the home of the brave.

And where is that band who so vauntingly swore
That the havoc of war and the battle's confusion
A home and a country should leave us no more?
Their blood has washed out their foul footprint's pollution;
No refuge can save the hireling and slave
From the terror of fight or the gloom of the grave.

CHORUS—And the star-spangled banner in triumph doth wave
O'er the land of the free
And the home of the brave.

Oh thus be it ever when freemen shall stand
Between their loved home and wild war's desolation;
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n rescued land
Praise the power that hath made and preserved us a Nation!
Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto, "In God is our Trust."

CHORUS—And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free
And the home of the brave.

Francis Scott Key.
